

Rules review of manuscripts in “Journal of Anatomy and Histopathology”

The review should include a qualified analysis of the article, its objective assessment and based recommendations.

The reviewer is necessary to address the following questions:

1. Accordance of the article for topics and journal's profile.
2. Compliance with the article title and its contents.
3. Compliance of article structure the statutory requirements (main sections of the article; the title of the article in Russian and English languages, annotation, keywords; references, information about the authors);
4. General characteristics and assessment of the content of the article (relevance and novelty of the research, scientific and methodological level, the accuracy and validity of the conclusions, scientific and practical significance);
5. The concretization of the positive aspects as well as drawbacks of the article, recommendations to authors for making corrections and additions to the article;
6. Finally, to make a recommendation on appropriateness of publishing the manuscript, necessity of its processing or rejection;
7. In the case of negative review arguments should be provided for rejection of the manuscript.

The surname, name and patronymic, degree, academic status, place of work, current position, contact details (postal address, e-mail, phone) of the reviewer, date of drawing up reviews must be specified.

Reviewer must submit a review of the manuscript (in electronic and printed form) for Editorial Staff not later than in 1 month from the date of its receipt.